Why run rivers with Liquid Descent?

- Safety & Experience - Liquid Descent is owned and operated by experienced river professionals who are passionate about providing you with a fantastic river experience.
- It's all about the guides - The guide is the most influential factor in determining the quality of your trip. That's why we hire guides that possess not only impressive river skills, but winning personalities as well. All guides are certified in CPR and First Aid, and all trip leaders are Certified Swiftwater Rescue Technicians.
- Equipment/Gear - We want our customers to feel good. Everybody knows that to feel good, you need to look good. So for 2008, Liquid Descent has all new, quality customer gear. No smelly, faded, orange life jackets here! We use cutting edge type V PFDs, wetsuits, helmets, splash jackets, fleece jackets, and booties. All rafts are self-bailing with FOOT CONES INSTALLED IN EVERY SEAT!
- Locations - We have two convenient Rocky Mountain locations.

◆◆ Gore Canyon - Class V

Gore Canyon is recognized as one of the most intense commercially rafted sections of whitewater in the USA. A remote dramatic canyon with heart pounding rapids, Gore Canyon is the epitome of classic whitewater, with large drops, numerous obstacles, and a steep gradient. Strong physical condition and paddling experience is a must. Special safety skills, and rescue techniques will be taught and practiced before entering the canyon. Gore is the ultimate whitewater experience.

Season: Late July through August

Full day $145 refreshments, snacks,
 and lunch Included

Guided Inflatable Kayak Tours

Want to take control of your own destiny? Try our 1 or 2 person (duckies) on the Colorado River. No paddling experience required, all you need is an adventurous attitude, and the desire to get wet!

1/2 $49 Full day $80 lunch included

Clear Creek

Only 30 minutes from Denver, Clear Creek offers some of Colorado's most fun and exciting whitewater. Enjoy the amazing scenery and wildlife of this historic mining valley, while running exhilarating sections of continuous whitewater. Whether you are a first time rafter or an experienced adrenaline seeker, we have the perfect trip for you on Clear Creek.

● Beginner Class II-III

Float by the historic waterwheel, keep on the lookout for wildlife, and begin to hone your skills paddling through rapids. This beginner trip offers plenty of excitement for first timers or youngsters looking for an introduction to the awesome whitewater in Clear Creek.

1/3 day am, pm, or evening $ 39 Adult, $30 child

■ Intermediate Class III-IV

Paddle invigorating rapids like Hemroid, Nomad, and Phoenix. Consistent class III and IV water will keep you happy, excited, and wet, as you get ready for the class IV finale called Outer Limits. For those looking for excitement and adventure!

1/2 day am or pm $49

◆ Advanced Full day Class IV

This trip is for those who are physically fit and looking for an ultimate Clear Creek experience. Put-in at 8000 ft and paddle 18 miles of the most continuous whitewater in the state. With 30 major rapids, this steep canyon run will satisfy the most healthy whitewater appetites.

Full day $95 lunch included

Eagle River

Located only a few miles from Vail Resort, the Eagle River is fed by the spring runoff as it remains one of the few undammed rivers in the state. The Eagle River provides gorgeous scenery augmented by incredibly fun and challenging rapids. Let us show you what makes this river a local favorite.

◆ Dowl Chute Class IV

This high alpine stretch is continuous and action packed. The Dowl Chute has narrow passages and fast moving water. This run is a blast but is recommended for the physically fit with previous rafting experience.

1/2 day am or pm $ 85 refreshments and snacks included

■ Lower Eagle Class II-IV

This trip is for those who may not have previous rafting experience, but are looking for a thrilling adrenaline filled adventure in a beautiful setting.
