

TIMBERLINE TOURS

Offers a Rafting Experience for Everyone...Starting at Only $59!

FAMILY FRIENDLY

Timberline Tours has a number of scenic and relaxing trips that are ideal for smaller children or anyone looking for an easier float trip or a mild whitewater experience.

SHOSHONE RAPIDS ON THE COLORADO

Paddlers are surrounded by towering walls of red rimrock as they enjoy a fun and exciting series of Class III intermediate rapids through magnificent Glenwood Canyon.

BROWNS CANYON ON THE ARKANSAS

One of the nation's most popular intermediate whitewater experiences. This historic and beautiful stretch of the Arkansas River offers exciting pool-drop rapids.

THE UPPER COLORADO RIVER

The best option for families with young kids or those looking for fun, easy rapids along with breathtaking scenery and lots of wildlife.

THE LOWER EAGLE RIVER

A great stretch of mild to moderate whitewater, that is close to Vail. There's plenty of excitement for those new to whitewater rafting.

ADVANCED

For the more aggressive beginner or those with prior rafting experience, these trips offer more exciting action for a thrilling whitewater experience.

DOWD CHUTE ON THE UPPER EAGLE

These Class IV rapids on the upper Eagle River near Vail offer some of the most fun and exciting early-season rafting in Colorado.

PINE CREEK & THE NUMBERS

This challenging stretch of Class IV rapids offers views of majestic 14,000 foot peaks as it runs through the heart of gold country.

GORE CANYON ON THE COLORADO

This is the ultimate river trip available in the state, guided by the first river outfitter to run it commercially. These Class IV and V rapids barrel through the 1,500 foot deep granite walls of Gore Canyon, providing non-stop whitewater thrills!

We operate under special use permits from the White River National Forest, USDA Forest Service,
BLM and the Colorado Department of Parks.
